

FIP (International Pharmaceutical Federation)

FIP has published a new resource called: “A handbook for pharmacists - cardiovascular diseases”. Pharmacists play an important role in the screening, prevention and modification of patients’ cardiovascular risk factors. This handbook is a useful tool to consider and use when screening and counselling your patients.