

IPU AGM & Conference 2024

Just 15 days to go to the IPU AGM and Conference. Book your tickets now.

Don't miss your opportunity to hear the Minister for Health, Stephen Donnelly TD., address our conference for the second year running.

This should be a great occasion for all those in attendance to engage with our great debate, listen to our international and local speakers and enjoy the entertainment. Places remaining are limited, book today to guarantee your attendance and avoid disappointment. Use this unique pharmacy event to meet your college friends and peers for a reunion!
