

IPU Delegation Management – 16 November – Spaces Available

Are you interested in making better use of your time and letting your staff grow at the same time?

This course will be useful to you if you are in a supervisory or management role by helping you use your time more productively and at the same time develop your staff.

It will provide key knowledge and skills to understand and be able to delegate more to your team members. This course is an investment in your future and the future of your staff.

To learn more and enrol click here.