

IPU Delegation Management – 19 November

Do you want to use your time more productively and at the same time develop your staff's skills?

This course helps those in a supervisory or management role to understand and be able to delegate more to team members. This will not only help you, but your team members knowledge and skills will improve as well as the job satisfaction of the full team. You will learn key skills, useful processes, helpful techniques and much more to support you with delegation management.

To learn more and enrol click here.