

IPU National Pharmacy Conference

The excitement is building, as we put the final touches to the conference. We are gearing up to see you all in just 2 days for the grand opening of our IPU National Pharmacy Conference and to hear our great range of speakers presenting on the future for our profession on the banks of the Shannon, at the Radisson Blu Hotel, Athlone.

Final online booking will close tomorrow, Friday morning at 9am, secure your place now – book here. Don't despair however you can still be a part of this great event by coming to the IPU Registration desk on the morning of the conference. Please remember that if you are attending the President's Dinner this is a Black-Tie event.

Find all the essential conference information gathered together in the Conference Brochure here, providing all the latest information on the event, our engaging speakers, general information and details on all the sponsors and exhibitors that will be in attendance in the Exhibition Hall.

Still looking for a room in the hotel? Reach out to the events team on 01 493 6401, we have access to a limited number of last-minute cancellations and we will do our best to locate a room for you.

AGM

Have your say on the way forward for the IPU! Register to attend our IPU AGM which will take place tomorrow, Friday 26 April (in-person-event only). You can register up to 9am this Friday here or register to attend at the IPU Registration desk on Friday evening. We look forward to an engaging and productive meeting.