

Pharmacy in the Media

The IPU was quoted in The Irish Examiner about the findings from the research by Behaviour and Attitudes (B&A) that shows there is overwhelming public support to allow pharmacists to prescribe medicines for minor ailments. This was also covered in the The Irish Sun, Irish Daily Star, Irish Daily Mirror, The Echo, Irish Pharmacy News, Western People, Dublin Live. There was also radio coverage on Newstalk, Today FM, 98 FM, Radio Kerry and Midwest Radio.

IPU Executive Committee member Paul Kenny was interviewed on WLR Radio discussing the B&A results.

Tom Murray, IPU Honorary Treasurer, was interviewed on Highland Radio (listen here from 16:50) discussing the availability of maxilief/solpadeine for GMS patients.
