

Pharmacy in the Media

An IPU press release calling on parents to use the opportunity of the mid term break to get the flu vaccination for their children was picked up by the Irish Sun and featured on the news bulletins of a multitude of local radio stations.