

Pneumococcal Vaccination Service

Community pharmacies are not currently included in the NIO funded pneumococcal vaccination programme.

Any stock used in your pneumococcal vaccination service needs to be privately sourced and ordered directly through wholesalers, not through the national cold chain service.

The administration of these vaccinations should be recorded on the HSE PharmaVax System. You can find additional information on this service on the IPU Pneumococcal Vaccination Service webpage.